There on the is - land he knew not what to do
 On Christ - mas eve - ning he sat there all a - lone
 And for a fort - night he quite en - joyed the trip He'd
 But all the ser - vants were snug be - neath the sheets

No girls with lov - ing eyes To talk to him and sym - pa - thise
 Just a - bove his head, you know There hung a bunch of mis - tle - toe
 Ev - 'ry - thing that he re - quired Ev - 'ry - thing that he de - sired
 All the clocks were strik - ing four And barred was ev - 'ry air - y door

There on his lone - some things felt aw - ful - ly blue
 He stood be - neath it and then he gave a groan
 Still there was some - thing mis - sing on the ship
 Binks seemed de - sert - ed, so did all the streets

He turned to poor old Mis - ter Fri - day and he said:
 And to him - self he whis - pered in the look - ing glass:
 He mur - mured to the Cap - tain when he went be - low:
 And shout - ed to the man who kept a cof - fee stall:
