Desperately Distant

Brad Kilman

G C

I confess

I have been desperately distant from You

I have wandered and not been restrained

I have wandered so far from You

But I want to return

I want to be true

I want to return

To You

Or:

I want to return
And drink from the fountain
I want to return
I want to be true
I want to return
To You

Ending:

You are the only One I run to right now

You are the only One I'm longing to see

You are the only One I run to

I run to right now

Place Your hand on me

Place Your hand on me
