Fm/Fb      Fm7                    Fbm           Fm7
Once again, I'm in trouble with my old friend,
                   Hm
she is papering the window panes,
                       Em     Em6                   ?
she is putting on a smile, living in a glass house

Fm/Fb      Fm7                    Fbm           Fm7
Once again packed like frozen food and battery hens,
                   Hm
Think of all the starving millions,
                   Em
Bon't talk politics and don't throw stones,
Em6                    ?
Your royal highnesses

Fm          E                    F            Fm Fsus2
  Well of course I'd like to sit around and chat,
Fm          E                    F
  Well of course I'd like to stay and chew the fat,

Fm          E                    F             Fm
    Well of course I'd like to sit around and chat,
        Fm                  Fm/Fb
    But someone's listening in,

Fm/Fb      Fm7                 Fbm           Fm7
Once again we are hungry for a lynching,
           Hm
That's a strange mistake to make,
             Em
You should turn the other cheek,
Em6                    ?
