

All My Friends Are Getting Married

Words and Music by Greg Macainsh.

no rpt. Chorus

Well all my friends are get-ting mar-ried, Yes they're all—

— grow-ing old, They're all stay-ing home on the week-ends, They're all do-ing what they're told. To last time 1. Well I

Verse 1, 2, 3

looked in-to the crowd the oth-er night,— And I saw— an asked him all a-bout him-self, And he said that he was old fa-mil-iar face, He said: "How are you do-in' Shirl, my boy?"

mar-ried with a kid, Showed me a pic-ture of his wife,—

D.S. twice no rpt. of verse 2nd time

He said: "Tell me are you play-in' the same old place?" 2. I
And we talked a bout all those things we did. Well,

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a 3/4 time signature. It includes guitar chord diagrams for various chords: C, E7, Am, G7, C6, Em, and F. The score is divided into a Chorus and three verses. The Chorus consists of two lines of music. Verse 1 is a single line. Verse 2 consists of two lines. Verse 3 consists of two lines. The score includes performance instructions such as 'no rpt.', 'D.S. twice no rpt. of verse 2nd time', and 'To last time'. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words hyphenated across lines.

Interlude

Coda

Am C Am

But I'm all caught up with this mag - ic, Yes, I'm all caught up with this fun,

C Am C

I'm all caught up with this mu - sic, Oh - woh may - be I'll

G7 C Am G7 C

nev - er have a son, Oh woh woh woh may - be I'll nev - er have a son.

A C#7 F#m A

All my friends are get - ting mar - ried, Yes they're all

C#7 F#m A C#7

— grow - ing old, They're all stay - ing home on the

F#m Bm E7 A

week - ends, They're all do - ing what they're told. rpt. to fade

3. Well sometimes I feel like I'm left behind,
 And sometimes I feel like I've just left school,
 Wonder if I'll ever grow up,
 Maybe I'm the only fool.